BREAK IN ANIMAL NATURE.

A Cow Belonging to Judge John H. West—over Mined Daily by a Pig—Finally Caught in the Act.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Ky., May 23.—A peculiar freak in animal nature has been discovered in this county. It is a cow belonging to County Judge John H.
Westover. The milkman perceived that the cow was falling in her milk.
As the days went by the deficiency became greater. He set a watch to try and discover the cause, but could find none. One evening last week, while in the pursuit of his usual duty of extracting the lactical fluid, a pig, out of a family of 11, ran squealing from its mates and seized one of the cow's teats, and with a dexterity born of long practice, proceeded to suck the teat dry. The milkman looked on in wonder, and not till the pig had let go did he try to drive it away, which with difficulty he succeeded in doing.
